E-mail address: _____ Age: _____ Gender: _____

School: _____ Expected date of Graduation: _____

Please attach to this application a "Statement of Need" that answers in your own words the following questions:

1. How have you supported the pro-life cause in the past and what are you doing in that area at present?
2. Why do you need the North Carolina Right to Life Scholarship?
3. How will receiving the North Carolina Right to Life Scholarship be used to further your contribution to the pro-life cause? For example you may include ways it will better prepare you to witness for the unborn, specific actions you envision undertaking to further the pro-life message; or ways in which you plan to spread the awareness of the pro-life message.

It is understood that if more than one recipient is awarded this scholarship, it may be divided so no one person receives the full amount.

It is also understood the awarding of this scholarship is dependent on your being accepted at the National Right to Life Academy.

It is acknowledged that upon graduation a final written summation will be submitted to the North Carolina Scholarship Committee of how this scholarship has fulfilled your intended expectations to enable you to support the pro-life cause.
